Dear Harold,

I hope you're pleased with the appraisal. It represents somewhat uncharted territory for me since I handle printed material, primarily. Nevertheless I think it's reasonably fair to all concerned. In one case I "rated" something higher than you did. It was material that was used to promote the book Oswald in New Orleans. In the literary world promotional/review material is valued at a premium.

By the way I cannot say when I will next be in Frederick. Could you sign copies of Case Open and Selections from Whitewash to me & include a bill? I'd be appreciative.

Sincerely,
Andy Kmiaczyk
